

The Daily Courant.

Friday, March 28. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Apr. 2.

Vienna, Mar. 19.

THE Body of Forces commanded by General Rabutin being on the March this Way to the Frontier of Austria, several Officers come hither daily, to solicit Pay and divers Necessaries for their Troops. We have Advice that as those Forces were advancing by the Lake of Balaton, the Malecontents hung upon their Rear, and took several Opportunities to attack them, but were most times repuls'd with Loss, so that about 300 of their wounded were sent over the Danube to Neuhenfel, among the rest M. Bonafus a Frenchman, who commanded in Gran for Prince Ragotski. They write from Arath on the Frontier of Transilvania, that Fort Czornat which was garrison'd with Rascians, was constrain'd by Count Caroli after a Siege of six Days to surrender; and the Garrison were conducted to Segedin: On the other Hand, a Party of Imperialists making an Excursion out of great Waradin, have defeated a Detachment of Malecontents near Tekebarot, killing 300 of them, and carrying away 70 Prisoners with a good Booty; and those Prisoners have taken on in the Emperour's Service. The Danish General Officers and others came to Day into this City, their Troops being order'd to march to Bavaria. Count Rabutin is expected at Court, after whose Arrival it will be known for certain who will be appointed to command on the Rhine. In the mean time Count Guido Staremberg having given Order for his Field-Equipage to be got ready, a Report is rais'd that he is to go to the Upper Rhine: 'Tis computed that the Army of the Empire which is to serve on that River the ensuing Campaign, will be compos'd of 36000 Men at least. 'Tis said the Persons appointed to fetch the Princess Elizabeth of Wolfembuttel hither, will be going by the End of next Week; and that there is now some Ground to hope for an Accommodation with the Malecontents of Hungary; because some Conferences have already been held about it with the Archbishop of Colocza; and because the chief of the said Malecontents are at Variance among themselves, and the common People of their Party are very desirous of Peace, being in Want of many Necessaries. P. S. Prince Eugene has sent Complaints that the Italian Princes are backward in paying the Contributions they promis'd, and desires Orders to raise them by military Execution. General Rabutin makes much greater Complaints that his Troops are not paid. The Danes who were 6000 Men in Number, are diminish'd to 700, and are on the March to the Upper Palatinate, to recruit themselves there. Prince Gaston of Tuscany set out from hence to Day for Prague.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 1.

Strasbourg, March 21. 'Tis advis'd from Court, that the Marshal de Villars will not come hither till the Middle of April; and that his Army will be compos'd of but 52 Battallions and 70 Squadrons, the King having given Order for Part of the Troops that were design'd for the Army in Alsace, and principally Horse, to march down to the Netherlands, where the Court is most in Fear of the Designs and Attempts of the Allies. All is quiet at present in these Parts, and we do not hear of the least Motion of any Troops: All the Fortifications of Lauterburg and Haguenau are undermin'd, to be blown up if the Enemy attempt to attack them and force our Lines.

Charleville, March 27. All the Garrisons of the Places on the Upper Maese are to march into the Field, to reinforce the Duke of Vendome's Army; and those Towns will be garrison'd with Militia commanded by experienc'd Officers.

Ghent, Mar. 30. The Allies have not made such Preparations since the War began as for the ensuing Campaign; and the Enemy appear to be very much alarm'd at it; they have made Ipres, Fort Knock, Furnes, and Newport, as strong as is possible; and the Lines they are making from Pont-a-Tresin to Tournay are almost perfected. We are continually sending Cannon, Ammunition, Bullets, Bombs, &c, from hence to Audenarde and Aeth: The Troops of the Allies are mustering in all their Quarters; and the Army will be ready to march into the Field as soon as the Duke of Marlborough arrives. 'Tis the current Report, that the Campaign will be open'd with the Siege of Mons or Tournay.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Mar. 26.

Paris, Mar. 26. M. Alexander de Galard de Bearn, Count of St. Maurice, died the 8th of last Month in the 9th Year of his Age, at one of his Seats in Quercy. The 17th Instant M. Pierre du Chesne, chief Physician to the Duke of Burgundy and the Duke of Berry, died at Versailles in the 92d Year of his Age. The 12th the Clergy of France, being extraordinarily conven'd, open'd their Assembly in the great Hall of the Convent of the barefooted Augustines in this City, after the Cardinal de Noailles our Archbishop had celebrated pontifically the Mass of the Holy Ghost with the usual Ceremonies; in the middle of which the Bishop of Angers preach'd a Sermon with great Eloquence. The 13th the Deputies of the Clergy went in a Body to Versailles, where they had the Honour to wait on the King. They were conducted to an Audience of his Majesty by the Marquis de Dreux great Master of the Ceremonies, and M. des Granges Master of the Ceremonies. The Cardinal de Noailles, President, made a most eloquent and pious Speech, in the Name of the whole: They were likewise introduc'd to the Dauphin, to whom the same Cardinal made a Speech.

Chronological Tables of Europe, from the Nativity of our Saviour to the Year 1703. Engraven on 46 Copper Plates, and contriv'd in a small Compass for the Pocket, being of great Use for the Reading of History, and a ready Help to discourse. Digested into so very easy and exact a Method, that any one may immediately find out either Pope, Emperour, or King, and thereby know in what Time and Kingdom he reign'd, who were his Predecessors, Contemporaries, and Successors, to what Vertues or Vices he was most inclinable, the good or ill Success of his Fortune; the manner and Time of his Death. By Colonel Parsons. The Sixth Impression, with Alterations and Amendments; and a new way of Binding more Commodious than the Former. Price bound 4 s. Printed for B. Barker at the White-Hart, and C. King at the Judges Head in Westminster-Hall, and sold by James Woodward in St. Christopher's Church-yard, in Thread-needle-street.

RACHEL ORMSTON, late of Martin's Lane, now Lives in the New Buildings in Lawrence-street, near the Church in Great Chelfea, where she continues to Reduce all sorts of Crookedness by the Method invented by the Famous VAN HELMONT, which is the most Certain, Safe, and the Easiest Way that has yet been Practised or Known, being without those Rugged and painful Racks of Neck-Swings, Iron-Bodice, or other Presses that are commonly us'd in such Cases, which are sure always to give abundance of Pain and Uneasiness, without any Certainty of Cure; wherein if they Fail, as oftner they do than otherwise, (because they depend altogether upon Force, without any probable Reason) commonly leave the Patient either Decried, or Consumptive, or both, at best Unhealthy. But this Method is altogether Easy, without any Force, and Consonant to the Gentle Rules of Nature, and the Tender Bodies of Growing Children; and for that Reason has all the Assurances of Success that Moral Probability can give, as the Practice has Demonstrated, inasmuch that some have scrupled to believe them to be the same Children after the Cure is perform'd.

The True Golden Snuff, one of the Noblest Secrets yet found out for speedily and actually removing most Distempers of the Brain, Eyes or Ears, the more particular Virtues whereof, and the way of using it are fully describ'd in the Paper of Directions, seal'd up with the Author's Seal, being an Elephant, and the figure of an Elephant stamp'd on the back of each Paper, with a Latin Inscription about it, to distinguish it from Counterfeits under the Name of Imperial Golden, English Golden Snuff. The said Snuff is only to be had at Mason's Coffee-house in Bartholomew-lane behind the Royal Exchange, at Mr. Prat's at the Angel over-against the Maremaid Tavern in Cornhill, at Mrs. Osborn's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, and from the Author at the Green Balcony in Durham-yard in the Strand; London, with good Allowance to those who would sell it again, and a large Paper gratis, fit for a Frame, to hang up in their Houses or Shops. And at Mason's Coffee-house aforesaid is likewise to be had the true Balsam of Cathay, so eminently known these many Years for its incomparable Virtues in giving immediate Ease in the Gout and Rheumatism, beyond any other Remedy yet publish'd, at 2 s. 6 d. a Box with Directions.

The Pile Ointment, carefully Prepared by an Eminent and Approv'd Physician, has been us'd for several years, with wonderful Success in private Practice, is now expos'd for the good of the Publick.
